FOR FRIENDS!

What do you want the coming "world government" to be like? Governments, controlled mostly by a global finance aristocracy, have killed more than 250 million so far already.

"THE MEMORY
CARD SHARED PEOPLE'S

BOOK AGAINST
2012' S
WORLD ORDER
FASCISM AND AGENDA 21"

Share this booklet out like you would share slices with others if your pizza was endless.

In fact, once the criminal system is reformatted we can all organize a big pizza party on a new holiday. So consider this your invitation to join with the global pizza party., that is if we can make it happen.

"Agenda 21", as it is known, is not only a reduction of your country's sovereignty but also your sovereignty over your own body and basic natural rights, and also robs your authority over your children's body's and mind's. It is a world government plan to manage and take over your lives like a zoo takes over animals lives. Please research it.

The People of the world are waking up to the fact that the existing "system" has been and is still being managed behind scenes of governments and the media by a global criminal generational mafia of about 5-7 thousand rich and powerful 'elites'.

We The People all around need to become the media. We cannot trust the corporate propaganda engines who report to these 'elites'.

We don't need to worry about being tracked and traced for delivering and receiving information if we are careful or if we all act together at once; while protecting each other.

We can utilize the internet too, however

We can utilize the billions of memory cards that most all of us already own. And almost everyone in the world has access to a computer, or will in the near future.

It is easy to copy a file, such as a book in PDF format, or an audio recording, or a whole folder of items, using two memory cards, or even two cell phones, and a laptop. Invent new bridge devices.

With memory card technology, We the People have the capability of running local internets ourselves, simply by passing gigabytes of information to others, by hand, to friends and neighbors.

If we can all get on the same page, and define as a group what kind of world government conditions and rules we will enjoy having over our heads, we can do amazing things together. In truth, we really don't need to be governed or told what to do, rather we need to be protected and serviced by a benevolent system.

For starters, every 18+ year old around the world should soon have this booklet, mostly delivered through the People's Internet. And most every adult should purchase a gun or learn how to use an alternative defense to protect ourselves and our families.

We The People for the Establishment of
The Independent States of America, I.S.A

This document can be found online using keyword: “GrowFreedom”

We The People can make a dramatically positive difference together. We need a common theme. We can all live in a better and happier world. We need to do something big to mark a real change, hopefully prior to financial collapse and hyper-inflation of the US dollar in the Fall of this year 2012.

In the year 2012, we are United as 1939 Germany: one entire country, one currency, one financed puppet commander, and many wars. We are no longer 50 independent states. We are now much like the “unsinkable” Titanic, crashing into icebergs and taking on more and more water (debt). Our country has been sinking; slowly and listing dramatically. The elite class, who have schemed collectively as one mind, wants another world war for the poor to suffer and die in. Are we just going to take orders, get suited up as with one uniform, to kill more? Is it brave to bomb other people? Is there a more peaceful way to be?

Yet the seemingly forgotten 10th amendment to the Constitution grants each of our 50 states independence from central control. But the out of control central government is now creeping into our own homes. It started long ago with cancer causing fluoride waste-product from the aluminum industry put into more of our drinking water. Are we each free anymore? Have we now just become little slaves; Are we meek or really are we brave? Are we just the home of the slave?

Together we can remove the old corrupt global establishment that en-debts and controls the United States of America. We can definitely restore sanity, peace, balance, prosperity, & all beneficial human freedoms.

All we have to do to create a solid foundation for real positive change (not chump change) is agree to do one thing together, or at least most of us. That is, We wish to establish a new government by and for We The People in the eyes of Creation. We need immediate volunteers. The best chance of this is sharing this idea everywhere. Let's Establish of the “Independent States of America” or I.S.A. Simply don't say and write U anymore, instead say and write I; as in “I can make a difference.”

You can be the “I” in I.S.A.; a slight change of wording, but a big, real and tangible difference. We can establish a benevolent system; perhaps one that provides property to new citizens, when they turn 18.

Together, We can overcome a lying out-of-control parasitic criminally corrupt government. If every soldier joins us, then we don't even need to get our guns out to expunge today's class of corrupted politicians, in order to get them completely out of the way. Not centralized power, but 50 good short-term governors for the 50 independent states, elected by the people of each state. 50 currencies and 50 constitutions, for the protection of minority rights everywhere; as defined by the full voting electorate of each of the 50 states.

The USA can easily be made into The ISA. No more national war mongering state Offenses, just a strong set of 50 Independent State “Defenses”! A beneficial system; perhaps one that provides a home for every new family.

“I” agree to the establishment of the Independent States of America, in order to fully replace the old-establishment of elite corporate controlled, horribly corrupted, war mongering centralized power of Washington DC; we declare 50 states.

Just get two others to sign before framing your statement. It is the duty of every free and independent person to promote freedom and pass around many copies. If this quickly becomes a fad; We will convene for real progress. There is no web site behind this; nor any particular people. It is free to say “Yes!”.

Obama-nation: "National Socialism" (1939-1945 Germany); power in fewer hands has already before drastically TWICE PROVEN TO BE A TERRIBLE IDEA.

The prophetic "OBAMAGRAM" decoding is CLEAR AND MOST HIGHLY obvious.

Obama Can't Save You unless You prevent Obama from casting more deceptions; which started with his fake/forged Hawaiian birth certificate (see: obamacrimes.com). Otherwise, perhaps, the future is already foretold.

The first decoding literally states Obama ("Oh....bomb-us??") will at least appear to be taken out in a bomb blast.

The beast system is not loyal to anyone, only the beast system itself, even Obama.

"They", the global criminal aristocracy, will apparently have Obama ass-asinated.

If Obama is not seen live at ground zero just prior to the the detonation (Washington DC?)

his pseudo-demise could only be yet another ruse. [A large deep tunnel system exists under DC.

The white house has a hidden entrance to an underground tunnel network and secret facility.]

Why a nuke? The incredible decoding states: "A bomb eradicates prank!"

(Letters of "President Barack Obama"): and "Ape bomb! Stark radiance!"

"Stark Radiance" seems to imply nuclear. It appears one of the two decoded Obamagram scripts will be played out.

To help prevent future horror: hot photatocopy this, email, print booklets, even sell for a profit.

ABOUT THE fascist "NEW WORLD ORDER" BEAST SYSTEM; PUBLIC OPINION MEANS EVERYTHING.

Things are now getting worse - even more than under the former puppet scrub Bush Jr!. Total Darkness!

Action! : The major media celebrity liars WORLDWIDE need to be arrested & incarcerated until the trial, then quickly after them, the world's criminal elite class for trial. And ASAP!

The global elites have to be contained by the good forces within the various world militaries; a mutiny! Those helpful in their round-ups will receive full pensions funded from the gold, silver, real estate, etc. reclaimed for the people from the Rothschild's and other elites. The "6660" or so elites should be contained in a "floating capstone" prison island, where they can dominate themselves and we can watch via a new reality tv show, like "Lost", but more fun & real.

So QUIT ACCEPTING THE CORRUPT SYSTEM'S EUGENICS/MERCURY TAINTED VACCINATIONS, TOXIC FLUORIDE, NAKED BODY SCANNING, MASS MEDIA LIES, WARS, AND OTHER SOCIALIZED CONDITIONING! AWAKEN TODAY!

Discuss together and prevent the elite's ongoing bio-attack strategies! Do it for you and others!

(More information, updated daily: GCNlive.com (The Genesis Communication Network)

Ultimately the criminal elites will help in deciding their own eternal judgment. So will you... Help by utilizing the internet to help create a mass awakening & e-mail this to friends! Say "No" to preemptive war with Iran and world war - and "Yes" to no fluoridation & naked body scans!

Universal People's Statement of Freedom

(Maximum Freedom or Fascist Slavery; it's each individual's decision. Public opinion means everything.)

Lovers of Freedom have continuously struggled against the forces of tyrannical governments for multitudes of centuries in the ever deceptive and animated contest between the spirit of enslavement versus the spirit of liberty. When in the course of world events it becomes clear government has become intentionally deceitful, destructive, and murderous - using any form of falsehood, manipulation of media, or theater as cover for an array of crimes - as well as for the next form of government, it is a matter of self-defense for the people of the nation and the world to throw off a corrupt system of government enslavement; and with expediency set then widely announce another special date, apart from July 4th, that will in the future echo worldly celebrations of the cause of liberty. The people should subsequently convene in large numbers on that date and also through the public global computing system of the time, for a convention of the people. The result of the open convention is to have authored, selected, and begun the implementation of a more protective system of shared rights, law, governance, and justice for the current and future generations; of any nation; for the collective happiness of all.

The laws of a Republic should be written clearly in the form of a constitution. However when once trusted political figures individually or as a whole concert of corruption, or the distribution of wealth or establishment system as a whole, betrays the trust of the citizenry by operating outside of the rules and constraints listed in such a constitution, then the citizens of the broken republic should take the stated recommendations of their previous declaration of independence & constitution, along with methods of self defense, back into their own hands. More than responsibility, it is the most sacred duty of the spirit of liberty and justice for all.

By the year 2008, through a persistent stream of offensive actions, including 9-11-2001, the organization widely known as the "United States Government" has declared itself murderous; while bankrupting the working class of America and instituting fascist rule. It has become evident to multitudes of people of every nation that the current government is allied with a cabal of corrupt international banking, war-mongering, so-called "freemasonic", "illuminati" or "new world order", interests. Therefore the "United States Government" has severely turned away from serving its sacred cause of freedom!

Therefore the "United States Government" has failed and is de-facto illegitimate as of the time of the announcement of this declaration at the start of the new people's convention. Revolution is the only possible cure for fascism; and it has already gone beyond the need for a once independent people to have a fresh start! The people's convention date will be decided by the truth movement.

Consequently, All of its previous authority over the citizenry is thereby removed by this declaration; and All freemasonic governments worldwide should be dissolved entirely by the great many world's people. All existing mob-ridden local governments over the individual and the municipalities should be fully dismantled, re-instituted, and rebooted with a fully transparent, efficient, protective, and accountable system model the people's convention democratically selects. All civil rights & laws should be voted for in a true 1-person-1-vote democratic and transparent form - as we always carry a vital responsibility to together choose what has control over our lives and what would ensure us maximum safety & happiness.

This progressive change of government should be enabled and empowered by the entirety of all national and returning armed forces together with all non-terminated local police and the widespread armed citizenry. No more system tyranny!

As we acknowledge this world-wide published declaration in multitudes, we pledge allegiance to each other. We are firm in our disassociation from the previous "United States Government" or any corrupt power. In unison We proclaim to disallow that organization to silence us, to control the mass media or the internet, to suppress us, to spray chemicals upon or conduct any experiments on us, to detain us, to imprison us, to terrorize nor genocide us, to tax us, to bill us, to create dollars or borrow credit, nor counterfeit paper money, to legislate for us nor to adjudicate any proceedings, to direct our armed forces, to make war, or make agreements in our name, nationally or internationally. We are fully aware of our Creation-given rights; including dissent.

Addendum: Initial action list for the people's convention (recommended date: July 5th, 2011; location: St. Louis, MO)

- * Withdrawing our businesses and franchises from federal or state-wide taxation of the "United States Government" and its equally corrupt mother companies, the United Nations, International Monetary Fund, and World Bank.
- * Create a new fully accountable system of money and taxation commissioned by the improved freshly-chartered citizen's government to: pay off all national debts, redistribute wealth fairly, fund the new government, and reinvigorate the economy.
- * Build a beautiful new national capitol city designed by non-freemasonic architects and constructed by the many hands of the nation within a large, and voted-upon, national forest. A new capitol is essential to mark the change in thinking.
- * Close and refurbish Washington DC, converting the former capitol into a city -wide orphanage and school campus for the nation's underprivileged children; dedicated in honor of patriots who lived bravely before us without shame.
- * Establish a new passport identification, numbered as chronologically signed, and imprinted inside a new & improved Bill of Rights - to be made available for all listed and future citizen signatories of this declaration of freedom from system tyranny statement; that anyone and everyone around the world is invited to recognize and support together forevermore. (All inmates individually reviewed for possible release.)
- * No more will we allow homeless/helpless to be picked up, medically experimented upon, or murdered. Every destitute person should be given an opportunity by the new system to construct a dwelling and share in a community atmosphere.
- * An end to the concept of "foreclosures". No more will the system be able to profit by conspiring to set market conditions so that people are unable to afford their family homes. Each house now belongs to the family, not to a bank.
- * Project Fresh Start – Organic Home Gardening Incentive Program, using a portion of elite reclaimed wealth, to finally solve world hunger. We should each also be motivated to erect personal greenhouses and maintain private gardens year-round. ~~~

Democracy arises out of the notion that those who are equal in any respect are equal in all respects; because men are equally free, they claim to be absolutely equal. Republics decline into democracies and democracies degenerate into despotisms. - Aristotle

If the world knew how to use freedom without abusing it, tyranny would not exist. - Tehyi Hsieh

The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight of hand that was ever invented. Banking was conceived in inequity and born in sin... Bankers own the earth. Take it away from them but leave them the power to create money, and, with a flick of a pen, they will create enough money to buy it back again... Take this great power away from them, or if you want to continue to be the slaves of bankers and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let bankers continue to create money and control credit. - Sir Joseph Stamp, former president of the Bank of England

Yes, we did produce a near perfect Republic. But will they keep it, or will they, in the enjoyment of plenty, lose the memory of freedom? $$$ We need to replace the self-destructive US dollar, now propped up as the world's reserve base currency. The current elite class have ideas for that already: the Amero, The Globo, the SDR, and the Bancor. However, we need to incarcerate the elite and reclaim the wealth they have stolen from the world through their big currency schemes of the past. A new world reserve currency would need a new name & new publicly transparent oversight and frequent audits by the people of the world. Elected boards should be established, and no board member should at any time profit excessively from their elected duty. Here is an idea for a name of a new global currency, the Dillar. For two reasons, the next currency will have a digital overlay to guard against counterfeiting, yet retaining privacy of use, so a digital dollar could be shortened to the Dillar. Also, since, We, the people of the world, are currently in a pickle, and the Dill is a name of a pickle, for humor's sake, the "Dillar" to replace the "Dollar" works too and would be the easiest transition. A fresh start for example would be this simple rule: everyone who had turned 18 years old, or does on their birthday, will receive D100,000 Dillars to start their new life and career. That would have the effect of distributing the wealth of the world evenly and fairly. They could choose to invest it in themselves via education, or into stocks in a new market, or into their own business, or assets such as their own house, etc. $$$

Soldiers Code

1. I am an American soldier - A protector of the citizenry, sworn to uphold the Constitution of the United States.
2. I will treat others with dignity and respect and expect others to do the same.
3. I will honor my country and my fellow soldiers; those who are not traitors to the Bill of Rights & Constitution.
4. I am proud of my country & its flag. I wish to look back and say that I am proud to have served my fellow citizens.
5. Lastly, no matter what the situation I am in, I will never do anything for pleasure, profit, or personal safety which would disgrace my country, my uniform, my unit, my high school class, and the people of my country.

Here is just one leaked photo of one elite gold depot. This one is supposedly under London.

The elite think they 'own' and control most of the gold and other precious metal bullion. Yes the bulk of it was stolen through the elite's corrupt money printing and financial scams.

Armed forces:

Each successful reclamation operation of elite gold should reward you personally for your risk and effort, so each gold reclamation soldier should receive either 3, 2 or 1 bars of gold as a gifted bounty from the world's people.

The majority of the reclaimed gold (at least $\frac{2}{3}$ rd of all reclaimed bars) should be organized and guarded and held to fund the new benevolent system... funding new public projects; helping to elevate the quality of life of the masses of the world's underprivileged.

Article by Paul Joseph Watson, Infowars.com, January 28, 2011

Zbigniew Brzezinski's much feared "global political awakening" is in full swing. Revolts in Egypt, Yemen, Tunisia and other countries represent a truly monumental worldwide rallying cry for freedom that threatens to immeasurably damage the agenda for one world government, but only if the successful revolutionaries can prevent themselves from being co-opted by a paranoid and desperate global elite.

During a Council on Foreign Relations speech in Montreal last year, co-founder with David Rockefeller of the Trilateral Commission and regular Bilderberg attendee Zbigniew Brzezinski warned of a "global political awakening," mainly comprising of younger people in developing states, that threatened to topple the existing international order.

Reading the full extent of Brzezinski's words in light of the global revolts that we now see spreading like wildfire across the planet provides an astounding insight into how crucially important the outcome of this phase of modern history will be to the future geopolitical course of the world, and in turn the survival and growth of human freedom in general.

"For the first time in human history almost all of humanity is politically activated, politically conscious and politically interactive... The resulting global political activism is generating a surge in the quest for personal dignity, cultural respect and economic opportunity in a world painfully scarred by memories of centuries-long alien colonial or imperial domination... The worldwide yearning for human dignity is the central challenge inherent in the phenomenon of global political awakening... That awakening is socially massive and politically radicalizing... The nearly universal access to radio, television and increasingly the Internet is creating a community of shared perceptions and envy that can be galvanized and channeled by demagogic political or religious passions. These energies transcend sovereign borders and pose a challenge both to existing states as well as to the existing global hierarchy, on top of which America still perches...

The youth of the Third World are particularly restless and resentful. The demographic revolution they embody is thus a political time-bomb, as well... Their potential revolutionary spearhead is likely to emerge from among the scores of millions of students concentrated in the often intellectually dubious "tertiary level" educational institutions of developing countries. Depending on the definition of the tertiary educational level, there are currently worldwide between 80 and 130 million "college" students. Typically originating from the socially insecure lower middle class and inflamed by a sense of social outrage, these millions of students are revolutionaries-in-waiting, already semi-mobilized in large congregations, connected by the Internet and pre-positioned for a replay on a larger scale of what transpired years earlier in Mexico City or in Tiananmen Square. Their physical energy and emotional frustration is just waiting to be triggered by a cause, or a faith, or a hatred...

[The] major world powers, new and old, also face a novel reality: while the lethality of their military might is greater than ever, their capacity to impose control over the politically awakened masses of the world is at a historic low. To put it bluntly: in earlier times, it was easier to control one million people than to physically kill one million people; today, it is infinitely easier to kill one million people than to control one million people. "

- Zbigniew Brzezinski (Public Liar, Globalist, and mega-a-hole)

It is important to stress that Brzezinski was not lauding the onset of this "global political awakening," he was decrying it. As one of the chief architects of the "existing global hierarchy" to which he makes reference, Brzezinski himself is under direct threat, as is the continuing ability of the global elite in general to control world affairs.

Brzezinski laments the fact that the Internet has made it almost impossible for the global elite to control the political environment, to control the thoughts and behavior of one million people, which is precisely why Egypt moved to shut down the world wide web yesterday in a desperate bid to prevent activists from organizing against the state.

{ We must understand that Egypt's revolution was caused by the establishment system, by design, in order to further destabilize the region. Yes, the Egyptian people think they have been taking control by the revolt, but when they are exhausted they will be given another form of dictatorship. They will not be given the freedom they demand, only a ruse. }

Members of the Cold Case Posse in Maricopa County, Ariz., whose report to Sheriff Joe Arpaio yesterday confirmed there is probable cause to believe Barack Obama's much-ballyhooed birth certificate document is a forgery, have begun briefing members of the county law enforcement team who may be involved in hunting for those responsible.

At a news conference yesterday, Arpaio and the chief investigator (prittle) specially appointed Cold Case Posse, Mike Zullo, confirmed that they had found evidence of forgery in the creation of the birth certificate image and fraud in the presentation of that piece of work as a real government document.

They also said they found Obama's Selective Service registration likely forged, and they said it appeared as though officials in Hawaii were covering up information about Obama. They also said it was not outside the realm of possibility that Obama might have been born overseas.

All of this relates to the Constitution's demand that a president be only a "natural born citizen," which is not defined in the Constitution. But many analysts believe at the time the document was written that would have meant the offspring of two citizens of the country.

GET A FREE COPY OF THE ARPAIO REPORT THAT WAS DISTRIBUTED TO PRESS TODAY (http://www.wnd.com/arpaio-report/)

Arpaio began the review at the request of hundreds of his constituents. They were concerned a fraudulent document was being used by Obama to be on the 2012 election ballot in Arizona.

Arpaio said at the news conference that the investigation would continue, and he might ask for a congressional investigation to address the issue. He also suggested that other outside agencies may end up participating.

While he said that decision remained in the future, sources told WND today that the Cold Case Posse, a team of volunteers not being paid by taxpayers, were briefing sheriff's office investigators on the status of evidence, so that they might be able to participate in the future as those responsible for the fraud and forgery uncovered already might be pursued.

Interestingly, the Cold Case Posse report said, "To quell the popular idea that Obama was actually born outside the United States, we examined the records of Immigration and Naturalization Service cards routinely filled out by airplane passengers arriving on international flights that originated outside the United States in the month of August 1961 [Obama's birth month]. Those records are housed at the National Archives in Washington, D.C. Interestingly, records from the days surrounding Obama's birth, August 1, 1961 to August 7, 1961 are missing. This is the only week in 1961 were these immigration cards cannot be found."

The posse said it already has identified at least one person of interest in the alleged forgery.

The Cold Case Posse had advised Arpaio that they believe forgers committed two crimes and sources say they now are sharing that information with Arpaio's investigative team.

They say it appears the White House fraudulently created a forgery that it characterized as an officially produced governmental birth record. And they said White House fraudulently presented to the residents of Maricopa County and to the American public at large a forgery represented as "proof positive" of President Obama's authentic 1961 Hawaii long-form birth certificate.

'The footage that Andrew Breitbart planned to release just hours after his untimely death would have proven hugely damaging to President Obama's re-election hopes, because it shows Obama fraternizing with Weather Underground terrorists whose goal it was to set up a Communist dictatorship inside the United States.

According to former FBI agent Larry Grathwohl, who was assigned to infiltrate the Weather Underground's Central Committee, the organization run by Bill Ayers carried out bombings targeting the Pentagon, the State Department, as well as police stations and federal buildings, in an attempt to cause the United States government to collapse and open the door for Cuban, North Vietnamese, Chinese and Russian troops to occupy the country.'

Arizona sheriff finds Obama presidential qualifications forged

07.03.2012

By Dianna Cotter

A singularly remarkable event has taken place in the United States of America. This event occurred in Arizona on March 1st and was an earth shattering revelation.

A long awaited press conference was given by Maricopa County Sheriff Joe Arpaio, a five time elected Sheriff, which should have made national and international headlines. Arpaio's credentials include serving in the United States Army from 1950 to 1953, service as a federal narcotics agent serving in countries all over the world with the U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA), and served as the head of the Arizona DEA. Without doubt, this is a serious Law Enforcement Officer, not one to be taken in by tin-foil-hat wearing loons.

Yet, in the five days since his revelations there has been little in the way of serious reporting on the findings he presented in his presser. With 6 short videos, the Sheriff and his team presented a devastating case, one the tame US press is apparently unable to report.

On April 27, 2011, President Barack walked into the White House Press room with a Cheshire cat like grin and a "Long Form Birth Certificate" from the State of Hawaii in hand. From the podium in the press room, Mr. Obama said, "We're not going to be able to solve our problems if we get distracted by sideshows and carnival barkers,". Quite the barb from a man holding a forged document.

- Print version

That's right, forged.

The president himself created the scene; one filled laughter from an adoring press corp., a scene of unprecedented fanfare while holding a forged document which was later posted on the White House website. This was the news Sheriff Arpaio revealed on March 1, 2012 in Arizona.

Arpaio asserts that his investigators discovered, during a 6 month long investigation which is ongoing, not only was the "Long Form" likely a digitally created forgery, but the presidents Selective Service Card (Draft Card), allegedly filed in 1980, was also a forgery. These documents are what Barack Hussein Obama relies upon to prove his constitutional eligibility to the office of President of the United States.

Forged documents are being used to qualify a President of the United States for the office he holds. Or is usurped the more accurate term?

The silence from the main stream media in the US is deafening. It almost seems as if the press is terrified to even think the question, let alone ask it: Is the President a criminal? The press in Arpaio's audience were certainly asking him to state precisely that, yet nowhere has the question been asked of the White House by the press. Instead the American Press is aggressively protecting the presumed President of the United States, pushing the fraud upon both America and the world, supporting a man who may well have usurped the office.

For months before Mr. Obama released the April 2011 forgery, American businessman Donald Trump had been demanding that the president show the country definitive proof that he was born in the state of Hawaii, and eligible for the Office of President. The birth certificate forgery which was presented by Mr. Obama was in response to the repeated public requests from the billionaire businessman.

One can easily imagine the reaction of the press had this scenario been about George W. Bush in 2004.

On the contrary, the press itself forged documents regarding the 43rd President: Long term CBS newsman Dan Rather lost his credibility along with his job when he presented forged Air National Guard documents allegedly denigrating the president's service in the 1970's. One can imagine the glee evidence presented by law enforcement officials of a real forgery made by President Bush would have generated. The press feeding frenzy would have eclipsed that of Watergate, the most controversial political event in modern America history which led to the resignation of President Nixon in August of 1974.

The questions in the White House Press room would have been merciless to say the very least.

What has been the response from the Obama era press?

Silence.

Silence so loud it can be felt.

What has been the response from the 44th president so far?

A tweet from Obama Campaign press secretary Ben LaBolt, containing a link to the conspiracy theory television show "The X-files" theme song: a mocking, Saul Alinsky like, retort.

High Crimes and Misdemeanors appear to have been committed by the President of the United States or his personal representatives in presenting a forged document to the press and the Nation as a legitimate document, and this information has been delivered from Law Enforcement Officials.

Arpaio refused to take the bait offered by a clearly hostile press in the conference room. He refused to accuse the president directly, instead informing the world that they had a "person of interest" in the forgery, and were continuing with the investigation.

Where is the outrage from the press??

As surreal as this is, it isn't the main event. It's only a part of a larger story.

Arizona sheriff finds Obama presidential qualifications forged

07.03.2012

Pages: 1234

Years before the 2008 election, Barack Obama was involved in efforts to amend the US Constitution to allow those who were born to parents who were not citizens to become President along with those born overseas. Those efforts have occurred several times in recent history, and all have failed. It must be intelligently asked why this was a concern at all for the then Senator.

There are two reasons for Obama's concern. The first lay in Article 2 section 1 of the constitution which states: "No person except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States, at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the office of President,".

Except for Barack Obama.

The second reason for Obama's concern lies in the Supreme Court of the United States case Minor V. Happersett (88 U.S. 162) 1875 which defines Natural Born Citizen:

"The Constitution does not, in words, say who shall be natural-born citizens. Resort must be had elsewhere to ascertain that. At common-law, with the nomenclature of which the framers of the Constitution were familiar, it was never doubted that all children born in a country of parents who were its citizens became themselves, upon their birth, citizens also. These were natives, or natural-born citizens, as distinguished from aliens or foreigners." Minor v. Happersett, 88 U.S. 162, 168.

This U.S. Supreme Court case decided that Virginia Minor, the plaintiff, could not use the 14th Amendment to claim citizenship and the right to vote because she was a Natural Born Citizen, and therefore unable to lay claim to the statutory citizenship the 14th Amendment gave to former slaves, which included their right to vote. This is the only U.S. Supreme Court case in the history of the United States to clearly define what a Natural Born Citizen is. It has been cited in dozens of cases since.

This is an issue which cannot be brushed aside by Mr. Obama. His father, Barack Obama Sr. was a student from the British Commonwealth of Kenya, a British Citizen who never sought to become a US Citizen, and indeed was eventually forced to leave the country. Mr. Obama has only one parent who was an American Citizen. Obama clearly does not meet the requirements of Natural Born Citizen as defined by the Supreme Court in Minor v. Happersett.

The Founding Fathers, the men who wrote the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, discussed these very reasons why no person of divided loyalties, divided nationalities, should ever have command of America's armed forces. Dozens of letters and many debates in the constitutional conventions recorded these concerns, always returning the "Law of Nations", Emerich De Vattel's encyclopedic record of the laws civilized nations had developed over two thousand years of which the founders were clearly aware of in their debates:

"The citizens are the members of the civil society; bound to this society by certain duties, and subject to its authority, they equally participate in its advantages. The natives, or natural-born citizens, are those born in the country, of parents who are citizens. As the society cannot exist and perpetuate itself otherwise than by the children of the citizens, those children naturally follow the condition of their fathers, and succeed to all their rights."

E. De Vattel 1758 Sec 212 Ch19

Vattel's definition has been accepted since the days the United States was still a motley collection of British Colonies. It has been accepted in no less than 3 Supreme Court Cases, has been accepted in testimony before the U.S. House of Representatives. It is by no means an original source; only recently dug out of dusty tomes in 2008. Indeed, this concept is enshrined in every Nation the world over. Every nation not only accepts, but has enshrined this concept: a person born to two parents who were citizens of that nation and born on its soil was a natural born citizen of that nation.

After his rousing 2004 speech at the Democrat National Convention, Barack Obama was considered a shoe-in for running for president in 2008, and indeed his campaign began that night in Boston. Yet his citizenship was a serious obstacle to his ambitions, and the ambitions of the liberal progressive movement which supported him.

So the efforts to obfuscate Obama's citizenship issues began in earnest. The plan was deviously simple, make certain that people focused on his Hawaiian documents, and minimize the visibility of Minor V. Happersett and Citizenship to the public.

The State of Hawaii

The state of Hawaii's role in this cannot be neglected for several reasons. Hawaii has a couple of legal Achilles heels of its own.

It was well known at the time, that any person could register the birth of a child in the state on a late form with only the signature of a witness (Hawaii Department of Health no longer uses this form). This means of obtaining Hawaiian documents was used frequently by immigrants who needed assistance from the state

(such as welfare), and Hawaii needed the federal dollars registering those births brought to the state. Second, and perhaps most importantly, Federal laws with regard to Hawaii had been written to allow a baby receiving state documents to be declared a Citizen of the United States without being subject to the Jurisdiction of the United States:

Arizona sheriff finds Obama presidential qualifications forged

[Sec. 305. \[8 U.S.C. 1405\]](#) Persons born in Hawaii:

A person born in Hawaii on or after August 12, 1898, and before April 30, 1900, is declared to be a citizen of the United States as of April 30, 1900. A person born in Hawaii on or after April 30, 1900, is a citizen of the United States at birth. A person who was a citizen of the Republic of Hawaii on August 12, 1898, is declared to be a citizen of the United States as of April 30, 1900.

Missing from this US Statute is the following which appears in the 14th Amendment:

"All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside."

This disparity created a legal loophole which is specific to Hawaii: A child born in Hawaii, regardless of whether or not they were born in the state and subject to the Jurisdiction of the United States, automatically gained US Citizenship. This is the only state in the United States where this condition existed. This is why Hawaii is so vitally important to Obama, and could explain why it is important enough to forge birth documents for. It is why Obama's birth is being alleged to have occurred there instead of somewhere like Washington State or elsewhere, and is so vitally important.

Obama, by being born in Hawaii, got automatic citizenship status in the United States without regard for whether the United States had jurisdiction over his citizenship. Otherwise, his citizenship would have legally followed his father's, British, as Barack himself admitted on his "Fight the Smears" website during the '08 campaign.

And it only took a witness signature to gain it. It is unknown how many children gained U.S. citizenship through this means. The real citizenship status of these individuals is similarly unknown, and now that it has been discovered that Barack Obama has put forth a forged Hawaiian Birth certificate, his own proof of birth in the state is subject to serious questions by law enforcement officials.

Months before the election of 2008 Barack Obama began deliberately directing public attention to his Hawaiian Records. The Obama campaign, before redirecting the site to "Attack Watch" maintained the "Fight the Smears" website which can still be found on archival websites. The Obama campaign posted the candidate's "short Form" birth certificate with the following information from FactCheck.com:

"When Barack Obama Jr. was born on Aug. 4, 1961, in Honolulu, Kenya was a British colony, still part of the United Kingdom's dwindling empire. As a Kenyan native, Barack Obama Sr. was a British subject whose citizenship status was governed by The British Nationality Act of 1948. That same act governed the status of Obama Sr.'s children.

Since Sen. Obama has neither renounced his U.S. citizenship nor sworn an oath of allegiance to Kenya, his Kenyan citizenship automatically expired on Aug. 4, 1982."

The campaign obviously wanted public attention directed at his birth documents in Hawaii.

The campaign itself created the entire birth certificate controversy, and acted to maintain and fan the flames of that controversy for several truly simple reasons. As long as the public was wondering about what being born under "the British Nationality Act of 1948" meant, and the birth certificate "birther" controversy in general, they were not looking into laws which would have legally prevented the senator from assuming the role of candidate and then President. Legal cases such as Minor V. Happersett.

This case was, and still is, of tremendous import. Had it been found during the campaign it would have prevented his candidacy, certainly preventing him from taking the oath of office in Jan 2009.

So a campaign to hide Minor V. Happersett was undertaken at the same time.

This is a direct connection to the Soros Foundation, a major source of political donations to Barack Obama and the Democrat Party.

Justia erased "Minor v. Happersett" along with text quoted from the case out of its Supreme Court servers deliberately in an effort to minimize the ability of the public to find the case by searching for it, significantly reducing its apparent importance.

These two separate efforts, raising the profile of the Senator's birth certificate in as controversial a manner as possible, while minimizing the legal role of Minor v. Happersett succeeded. Barack Obama was able to illegally win the election, and illegally take office. It was stolen right in front of the American public.

The house of cards is about to come tumbling down around Barack Obama's ears as the momentum of evidence builds. Law enforcement has found his birth documents to be "highly suspect" as a forgery. His draft card has similarly been found by law enforcement as being "highly suspect" as a forgery. The smoke screen cover created by his birth certificate, hiding Minor v. Happersett in a shadow of false mockery, has been blown away. Leaving the Supreme Court case alone on the stage, glaringly exposing Barack Obama as an usurper, an unconstitutional President of the United States.

The American Press is deliberately hiding the evidence published on the internet about this defrauding of the American public and the deliberate evisceration of the Constitution of the United States. It is hiding Barack Obama's Fraud as it has been revealed by a Sheriff in Arizona. The silence of the American press would be unbelievable if it weren't so blatantly obvious.

It is nearly as egregious as the audacity of Obama's fraud itself.

The reason the press did give this sheriff and his friends any special notice is because they are wingnuts and this sort of "birther" nonsense has been exposed for what it is: right wing fantasy. The so-called investigator for this very crazy sheriff is a well known conspiracy enthusiast and his views on almost everything have been debunked. I find it amazing that a responsible journal like Pravda would endorse this truly crazy stuff.

Why should the main stream media concern themselves with such trivial manners as the President of the United States having a forced Birth

Stunner! Balanced CBS report on Arpaio probe

Network affiliate documents evidence in Obama eligibility dispute

A stunning challenge has been issued in the argument over Barack Obama's eligibility to be president, and it comes from a lead investigator for Sheriff Joe Arpaio in Maricopa County, Ariz.

Arpaio's team of volunteer professional law enforcement officers and attorneys concluded after a six-month investigation that there is probable cause that forgery and fraud were committed in the process through which Obama released a "Certificate of Live Birth" image at the White House last year.

Arpaio has assured those interested that the investigation is continuing and earlier suggested that the appropriate avenue might be for Congress to begin an investigation.

The challenge came from lead investigator Mike Zullo, who was interviewed by the CBS Channel 5 affiliate in Phoenix. Reporter Heather Moore pointed out that it was Zullo's name and face that was being attached to the investigative report, and she asked how comfortable was he making the allegations.

"Very comfortable," he said, citing experts the investigators consulted during their 2,200 hours of work. "You can build the document. You can't do that if you scan [a document]."

NOTE: In case you missed the news conference of Sheriff Joe Arpaio's "Cold Case Posse," you can view it here.

Then she asks what he would say to "naysayers" who claim the allegations are just a bunch of "B.S."

"Prove it," he said. "We did."

He added, "We proved our point. That document's created."

Specifically, he said the image that was released by Obama never was an original hard copy that was scanned, as the White House described. It was instead, he said, an idea created in a computer.

The CBS affiliate report already has had more than half a million views, meaning that the response the station got from the White House on the issue, a reference to a year-old statement by Obama that such issues are "side shows," may not be sufficient much longer.

Arpaio, at his original news conference announcing the results, said he was not accusing Obama of any crime.

But he said the evidence uncovered shows "violations of the law. We're investigating those crimes."

At that time, the posse confirmed it has identified at least one person of interest in the alleged forgery of Obama's birth certificate.

In fact, Zullo reported, "We have identified the computer manufacturer, [and] where that document resided 20 minutes before it was uploaded onto the White House website."

The issue of Obama's birth certificate centers on his eligibility to be president, since the Constitution requires that a president be a "natural-born citizen."

The term is not defined in the Constitution, but at the time the document was written, many experts believe it referred to the offspring of two citizens of the country. Some critics say the place of birth is irrelevant, since Obama has written that Barack Obama Sr., his father, never was a U.S. citizen.

The posse also said evidence suggests the Hawaii Department of Health has engaged in a systematic effort to hide from public inspection any original 1961 birth records it may have in its possession.

Arpaio launched the investigation at the request of 250 of his constituents. He assigned it to independent volunteers so that taxpayers would bear none of the costs of the investigation.

Obama impeachment bill now in Congress Declares president's use of military without approval 'high crime, misdemeanor'

Let the president be duly warned.

Rep. Walter B. Jones Jr., R-N.C., has introduced a resolution declaring that should the president use offensive military force without authorization of an act of Congress, "it is the sense of Congress" that such an act would be "an impeachable high crime and misdemeanor."

Specifically, Article I, Section 8, of the Constitution reserves for Congress alone the power to declare war, a restriction that has been sorely tested in recent years, including Obama's authorization of military force in Libya.

In an exclusive WND column, former U.S. Rep. Tom Tancredo claims that Jones introduced his House Concurrent Resolution 107 in response to startling recent comments from Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta.

“This week it was Secretary of Defense Panetta’s declaration before the Senate Armed Services Committee that he and President Obama look not to the Congress for authorization to bomb Syria but to NATO and the United Nations,” Tancredo writes. “This led to Rep. Walter Jones, R-N.C., introducing an official resolution calling for impeachment should Obama take offensive action based on Panetta’s policy statement, because it would violate the Constitution.”

Read “The Case for Impeachment” and know why Obama has got to go before America is done for ...

In response to questions from Sen. Jeff Sessions, R-Ala., over who determines the proper and legal use of the U.S. military, Panetta said, “Our goal would be to seek international permission and we would ... come to the Congress and inform you and determine how best to approach this, whether or not we would want to get permission from the Congress – I think those are issues we would have to discuss as we decide what to do here.”

“Well, I’m almost breathless about that,” Sessions responded, “because what I heard you say is, ‘We’re going to seek international approval, and then we’ll come and tell the Congress what we might do, and we might seek congressional approval.’ And I just want to say to you that’s a big [deal].”

Asked again what was the legal basis for U.S. military force, Panetta suggested a NATO coalition or U.N. resolution.

Sessions was dumbfounded by the answer.

“Well, I’m all for having international support, but I’m really baffled by the idea that somehow an international assembly provides a legal basis for the United States military to be deployed in combat,” Sessions said. “They can provide no legal authority. The only legal authority that’s required to deploy the United States military is of the Congress and the president and the law and the Constitution.”

The exchange itself can be seen below:

The full wording of H. Con. Res. 107, which is currently referred to the House Committee on the Judiciary, is as follows:

Expressing the sense of Congress that the use of offensive military force by a president without prior and clear authorization of an act of Congress constitutes an impeachable high crime and misdemeanor under Article II, Section 4 of the Constitution.

Whereas the cornerstone of the Republic is honoring Congress’s exclusive power to declare war under article I, section 8, clause 11 of the Constitution: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that, except in response to an actual or imminent attack against the territory of the United States, the use of offensive military force by a president without prior and clear authorization of an act of Congress violates Congress’s exclusive power to declare war under Article I, Section 8, clause 11 of the Constitution and therefore constitutes an impeachable high crime and misdemeanor under Article II, Section 4 of the Constitution.

A president with a fake birth certificate isn't really a president, so can he be impeached?

It seems to me, that since Obama refuses to release his College Transcripts, he must have something to hide. It's just common sense, if there's nothing to hide, then what's the problem?

Poll: U.S. faces constitutional crisis on Obama

Americans finally getting message about possibly ineligible president

Published: 3 days ago

by Bob UnruhEmail | Archive

Editor's note: This is another in a series of "WND/WENZEL POLLS" conducted exclusively for WND by the public-opinion research and media consulting company Wenzel Strategies.

Questions have been raised about Barack Obama's eligibility to be president since before his election, but with a mainstream media leading cheers for him many Americans haven't realized the seriousness of the situation - the possibility that the sitting president is ineligible and constitutionally devoid of authority to sign bills, set foreign policy or even host lavish parties for friends in the White House.

That's changing, and a large part of the reason is that Sheriff Joe Arpaio of Maricopa County, Ariz., conducted a six-month Cold Case Posse investigation that has concluded there is probable cause that there was forgery in the creation of the image of Obama's "Certificate of Live Birth" and fraud in its presentation to the nation as a genuine document.

The evidence that the word has been reaching Americans comes in the latest WND/Wenzel Poll conducted exclusively for WND by the public-opinion research and media consulting company Wenzel Strategies.

It indicates that almost 40 percent of registered voters now think the nation is facing a constitutional crisis because of a lack of documentation regarding Obama's eligibility.

NOTE: In case you missed the news conference of Sheriff Joe Arpaio's "Cold Case Posse," you can view it here.

The scientific telephone survey, conducted March 10-13, has a margin of error of 3.72 percentage points.

Nearly 26 percent of respondents say they strongly agree with the statement that the country now is facing a constitutional crisis on the issue of Obama's eligibility. Another 13.7 percent say they somewhat agree.

Critics long have raised the question about the impact on the nation should Obama be proven to be ineligible. There would be many issues to consider: Are the laws he's signed still laws? What about the money he's spent? And how about the commitments he's made to allies overseas? What about significant social changes he's brought about, such as opening the U.S. military to open homosexuality?

Could any of those be reversed. And who would pay for that?

Or does anybody care?

The preliminary findings of Arpaio's investigation by experienced law enforcement investigators and attorneys, released March 1, have served to wake people up on the issue, Wenzel said, despite mainstream media efforts to keep the information under wraps.

The poll showed 11 percent of voters are very familiar with the conclusions in Arpaio's report, and another 19 percent are somewhat familiar. Still, nearly 70 percent were not very or not at all familiar.

The poll also showed that because of Arpaio's report, 40 percent now concede they are more likely to believe Obama is ineligible to hold the office of president. Another 20 percent said they weren't able to express an opinion on that question.

Also, more than 46 percent said they agree that now there needs to be more extensive investigative work done into Obama's eligibility to determine the facts, while 39 percent said they disagreed.

And then there was the key question about the nation facing a constitutional crisis.

At issue would be consequences such as the fallout of court decisions made by judges appointed by Obama. There are two new U.S. Supreme Court judges, Elena Kagan and Sonia Sotomayor, who owe their lifelong appointments to Obama.

But if Obama was ineligible from the beginning, what about those appointments, and what about the decisions in which those judges have participated?

Respondents also are divided over the little media coverage that did take place. About 30 percent say the coverage of the Arpaio report was favorable to Obama and another 25 percent say it opposed him. Significantly, 30 percent are "not sure."

Wenzel suggested that the issue needs to be in the news, so people know about it, can do their research and make up their minds.

"This issue is very much like the government takeover of the national health care system engineered in the first two years of the Obama term in that it produces a visceral and negative reaction from many voters, but it requires constant discussion to keep it in the minds of voters. This is not a subject on which voters want to dwell, but forced to think about it, many react in a negative way," Wenzel said.

"This may be the very reason Obama's supporters in the mainstream media do not want this topic discussed, and there has been a concerted effort to marginalize those who raise questions about this issue," he said.

"But the truth is that if Americans came to realize just how many of their neighbors harbor the same skepticism about Obama's eligibility that they share, the political and societal ramifications could bring dramatic change to this nation," he said.

He said Americans so far mostly have been content to "sit idly by while an apparent imposter raids their national treasury and runs their once-great nation into the ground."

The issue is Obama has not provided the documentation needed to determine whether he meets the Constitution's requirement that a president be a "natural-born citizen."

Obama has refused to allow access to whatever original documentation there might be in the state of Hawaii, where he said he was born, as well as many other documents, such as passport records, kindergarten records, Punahou school records, Occidental College records, Columbia University records, Columbia thesis, Harvard Law School records, Harvard Law Review articles, University of Chicago articles, Illinois State Bar Association records, Illinois State Senate records and schedules, medical records, Obama/Dunham marriage license, Obama/Dunham divorce documents, Soetoro/Dunham marriage license and adoption records.

There also are his critics who say that "natural born citizen" at the time the Constitution was written would have meant the offspring of two citizens of the country, and since Obama's father was a foreign national, he would not qualify under that standard.

WND previously reported that some of the silence from the media may be due to threats.

Lead Cold Case Posse investigator Mike Zullo told WND, "During our investigation, we actually were told [that media] had been threatened with FTC investigations. Commentators [had been] threatened with their jobs."

The threats were so intimidating that some individuals quit their positions over safety concerns for their families, he said.

Democrat sues to boot Obama from ballot

Alleges he 'has not established being a natural-born citizen, or even a citizen'

Published: 12 hours ago

by Bob UnruhEmail | Archive

Another lawsuit has been filed asking state officials to remove Barack Obama's name from the 2012 election ballot because he has not documented that he is eligible for the office, but this case in Florida has a twist: It was brought by a Democrat.

The case was filed by Larry Klayman of Freedom Watch USA on behalf of Democrat Michael Voeltz, "a registered member of the Democrat Party, voter, and taxpayer in Broward County, who was an eligible elector for the Florida Primary of Jan. 31, 2012."

As part of his responsibilities, the lawsuit explains, Voeltz took "an oath to 'protect and defend' the U.S. Constitution."

The complaint cites widely reported suspicions that Obama might not have been born in the United States and the fact that his father never was a U.S. citizen. It contends that because of those circumstances, Obama is not a "natural-born citizen" as the Constitution demands of the president.

Named as defendants are Florida Secretary of State Ken Detzner and the state Elections Canvassing Commission.

"The requirement for natural-born citizenship, which is found in the U.S. Constitution, was intended to prevent foreign influences from 'influencing' an American president," Klayman said as the action was being filed. "These 'influences' have regrettably been witnessed by the American people during President Obama's term in office. It is clear the Founding Fathers intended to avoid such a situation, where an American president seems to frequently sympathize with and take actions benefiting foreign interests."

Discover what the Constitution's reference to "natural born citizen" means and whether Barack Obama qualifies, in the ebook version of "Where's the REAL Birth Certificate?"

Klayman explained that the U.S. Constitution mandates a president must be a "natural born citizen" - born to two U.S. citizens. Neither Obama nor the Democratic Party of Florida nor any other group has confirmed that Obama is a "natural born citizen" since his father was a British subject born in Kenya and not a citizen of the United States, Klayman said.

The Florida Election Code allows any voter or taxpayer to challenge any candidate who is ineligible for public office in the Leon County courts. If the secretary of state cannot confirm Obama's eligibility, then Klayman is demanding the court grant an injunction preventing Obama's name from appearing on the Florida General Election Ballot in 2012.

Klayman was a U.S. Senate candidate in Florida in 2004. He formerly headed Judicial Watch and in that capacity appeared in Florida courts in the famous case of Gore v. Bush before Judge N. Sanders Sauls in Leon County.

The new case raises a number of issues:

On or about April 2011, only after years into his presidency, and under media and political pressure, Barack Hussein Obama published on the Internet an electronic version of a purported birth certificate alleging his birth in Honolulu, Hawaii on August 4, 1961, to American citizen mother, Stanley Ann Dunham, and Kenyan British subject father, Barack Obama Senior," the complaint explains.

There is credible evidence indicating that this electronically produced birth certificate is entirely fraudulent or otherwise altered. No physical, paper copy of the actual long form birth certificate has been produced in order to definitively establish Barack Hussein Obama's birth within the United States."

The action follows by only weeks the release of Sheriff Joe Arpaio's investigation into Obama's antecedents. The six-month-long investigation done by professional law enforcement officers working on a volunteer basis for Arpaio's Cold Case Posse found that there is probable cause to believe there was forgery involved in the production of Obama's birth certificate, and fraud in presenting that document as a genuine document.

Even if Barack Hussein Obama was born within the United States, he is still not a 'natural-born citizen' as required by the U.S. Constitution," the lawsuit states. "Barack Obama Sr. was born in the British Colony of Kenya on June 18, 1936. Birth in Kenya made Barack Obama Sr. a British subject, according to and governed by the British Nationality Act of 1948.

The lawsuit notes that state officials in Florida never have tried to ascertain Obama's eligibility even though they are under oath to “support the U.S. Constitution.”

“Defendant Barack Hussein Obama has not established the eligibility requirements set forth by the U.S. Constitution of being a natural born citizen, or even a citizen, of the United States,” the case states.

It seeks a determination that the state must following the U.S. Constitution and verify Obama’s eligibility or make a determination itself of Obama’s eligibility.

The new case follows about a dozen others that already have been filed on similar grounds in other states. While most of the cases have been dismissed, some now are on appeal.

In Georgia, for example, a terse rejection by the state Supreme Court has opened the door to an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

In that case, the recent abrupt rejection by the state Supreme Court indicates the state’s “laws and courts are a sham,” one case participant suggested.

The comment comes from Van Irion of Liberty Legal Foundation, one of several attorneys who started out several weeks ago with a challenge to Obama’s candidacy based on a state law that allows residents to require candidates to prove their eligibility for the office they seek.

At the hearing level, an administrative law judge simply threw out all of the evidence and ruled in favor of Obama, who, along with his lawyer, snubbed the hearing and refused to appear.

An intermediate court followed suit and now the state Supreme Court has issued a terse denial.

“Upon consideration of applicant’s ‘Emergency Motion for Preliminary Injunction,’ the motion is hereby denied,” the court said in a one-line refusal.

Irion had asked the court to halt the certification of the primary election results that included Obama’s name until the court case could be argued.

“I believe that this latest ruling proves that Georgia law does not apply to the powerful,” Irion said in today’s statement to supporters and others. “Put another way, Georgia laws are enforced against the powerless by the powerful, but when the powerless try to have the laws applied to the powerful the courts protect the powerful.

“This is worse than anarchy. With total anarchy everyone knows that the powerful rule. With anarchy everyone understands that the only rules are the rules that the powerful want to enforce, when the powerful want to enforce them. What we have in Georgia is a system of laws and courts that appear to be fair and claim to be impartial, but in reality the purpose of the laws and courts is to deceive the people into thinking that justice is possible. The laws and courts are a sham. The courts serve to disguise the one-sided enforcement of the law.”

In Georgia, the challenges to Obama were raised by several individuals represented by different attorneys. They brought the arguments under a state law that allows any citizen to challenge the qualifications of a candidate.

The plaintiffs argued several points before administrative law judge Michael Malihi, including Obama’s alleged failure to qualify as a “natural-born citizen.”

Citizens raising concerns include David Farrar, Leah Lax, Thomas Malaren and Laurie Roth, represented by Orly Taitz; David Weldon represented by attorney Van R. Irion of Liberty Legal Foundation; and Carl Swensson and Kevin Richard Powell, represented by J. Mark Hatfield. Cody Judy is raising a challenge because he also wants to be on the ballot.

Sheriff Joe: 'Tons' more shocking Obama info [to come soon]

Rips 'biggest censorship blackout in the history of the United States'

Joe Kovacs, executive news editor for WND, is an award-winning journalist and author of the forthcoming book, “The Divine Secret: The Awesome and Untold Truth About Your Sheriff Joe Arpaio

“America’s toughest sheriff” says there is “tons” more potentially shocking information on Barack Obama in connection with his probe into the president’s eligibility, and he calls the media’s suppression of his findings of a likely forged presidential birth certificate and Selective Service Card “probably the biggest censorship blackout in the history of the United States.”

“I’m not going after the president to keep him off a ballot or anything else, but that could happen,” Arizona Sheriff Joe Arpaio said. “I’m going at it strictly as a law-enforcement guy investigating a possible forgery and fraud. I’m sticking with that, but I’ll tell you one thing. We got tons of other information that could be very shocking, too, but I’m sticking now with just the [forgery] investigation and possible criminal violations.”

The lawman from Maricopa County made the comments March 16 on a national radio show hosted by Roger Hedgecock. (Scroll down for video.)

As WND reported March 1, Arpaio and his Cold Case Posse announced there is probable cause indicating the documents released by the White House last April purported to be Obama’s original, long-form birth certificate and Selective Service registration card are actually forgeries.

Read the preliminary findings of Sheriff Arpaio's Cold Case Posse investigation.

He stressed on the radio show his original intent with the posse was to put to rest all the claims suggesting Obama was not meeting the constitutional requirements to hold the presidency.

"I told these guys, 'I want you to do a good job. I hope we clear the president,'" he explained. "I said give me the microfiche in Hawaii to show that he was born in that hospital. Give us the microfiche. I said that six months ago. And that would clear everything up. But as we went into it with an open mind, now we're coming to a conclusion that we may have some forged documents revolving around this situation."

When asked about making an arrest, Arpaio said, "We're trying to identify any alleged forger. We haven't done that yet. ... I'm not blaming the president, but if they're forged, someone has to be responsible for doing that."

The sheriff also said that on Friday, he made a decision about where to send Obama's Selective Service Card in order to have that agency "help us or do an independent investigation."

"We have nothing to hide. We're bringing it to their attention, and see what happens," Arpaio said. "My problem is, there's a lot of conflicts out here to get somebody to look into this. [Regarding] the media ... this is probably the biggest censorship blackout in the history of the United States. When I go to the toilet, I make it in national news. ... I just can't believe the media, including the cable media blocking this thing out."

Today, Arpaio issued a statement saying he sent his request for assistance to the U.S. Selective Service System, asking its director, Lawrence Romo, to respond to him within 30 days on whether or not his national office will provide the sheriff with the original document, and if that office will move forward with an investigation of its own.

On Hedgecock's radio show, Arpaio noted:

"I guess common sense would be to send it to them. The Selective Service director is appointed by the president. ... They only have 136 employees in the whole organization. I presume if I did that, what do you think they're gonna do with it? The director who was appointed from San Antonio, Texas, eight months into the Obama administration, what do you think he's gonna do? He's probably gonna call some guy at the White House if he can get up to the chief of staff to ask some advice, and then what are they gonna do? Give it to the attorney general? I don't know. ... So I'm fighting big battles here."

Arpaio made special note about the issue of Obama's possibly forged Selective Service Card.

"We had a press conference. A lot of people came. They were snickering, trying to embarrass me, [saying] this is a pony show trying to get publicity," he said. "However, when we showed the Selective Service Card on the screen, you could hear a pin drop."

Because of inconsistencies on the form itself - including an unusually incomplete date stamp - sheriff's investigators suspect the form, which was allegedly filled out in Honolulu in 1980, may be a forgery.

WND is reporting today that Arpaio is seeking Obama's original registration card from Selective Service.

Sheriff's investigators were able to replicate the alleged forgery by obtaining a circa 1980 pica stamp and a circa "2008" date plug. Investigators were able to clearly demonstrate the "80" (which should have actually read 1980) in Obama's Selective Service Registration form resulted from cutting out the "08" from an authentic "2008" date plug, and inverting the "08" to read "80" when the cut plug was loaded into the year slot on the 1980 pica stamp.

Meanwhile, although Arpaio did not focus on Obama's Social Security Number at his news conference, WND has also reported the president may be using a fraudulent number, another important piece of information the national news media continue to suppress.

Follow all the future developments in this story - sign up for WND's email news alerts right now!

The Arpaio findings are not the only items the media are refusing to cover. As WND reported yesterday, a full-blown cover-up appears to be taking place in connection with WND's disclosure about a retired U.S. postman who has signed a sworn affidavit suggesting Obama was a foreign-born student who was receiving financial help to go to Harvard from the parents of domestic terrorist Bill Ayers.

See excerpts of WND's interviews with mailman Allen Hulton:

Arpaio's Cold Case Posse began its investigation in August after 250 members of the Surprise, Ariz., Tea Party, presented a signed petition asking him to undertake the investigation. The tea partiers indicated if a forged birth certificate had been used to place Obama on the 2012 Arizona presidential ballot, their rights as Maricopa County voters could be compromised.

Then last December, Obama's Justice Department held its own news conference to claim Arpaio's office committed civil-rights violations against Hispanics, including racial profiling and heavy-handed immigration patrols based on racially charged complaints.

When asked about that during Friday's radio show, Arpaio said, "They want to control my organization, [imposing] monitors and everything else. I'm not gonna go for that. So I guess they'll sue me and we'll go to court and put the real facts out. The real facts that they're going to have to come up with including all their so-called witnesses that they won't identify. They won't give us anything."

Following up on his investigative team's finding of probable cause that Barack Obama's Selective Service registration form is a forgery, Maricopa County, Ariz., Sheriff Joe Arpaio has asked Selective Service Director Lawrence Romo in a letter to produce original documentation.

A copy of Obama's registration form indicates the registration took place at the Makiki Station Post Office in Honolulu on July 29, 1980. Arpaio wants court-approved, forensic experts selected by his office to examine the original for its authenticity, as well as any microfilm or computer copies that may exist.

In the letter, Arpaio also asked Romo to pursue his own investigation to determine when and how Obama's Selective Service registration was submitted and entered into the agency's records.

"No doubt your agency has established procedures for investigating probable cause suspicions when a Selective Service Registration card has been forged," Arpaio writes.

Arpaio tells Romo his sheriff's office "would appreciate knowing what steps you will direct the Selective Service system to take to investigate these allegations, so that together we may ultimately identify the person or persons responsible for producing the document."

Arpaio asks Romo to respond within 30 days regarding whether or not his national office will provide him with the original document and if his agency will move forward with an investigation of its own.

Romo, who was appointed in 2009 by Obama, reports directly to the president.

Date stamp forged?

Exhibit A shows Obama's Selective Service registration form, with the Post Office date stamp, July 29, 1980, in the lower right corner.

Exhibit A: Barack Obama's Selective Service registration form

Arpaio's investigators reviewed a number of authentic Selective Service registration forms obtained from the federal government through Freedom of Information Act requests.

Read the preliminary findings of Sheriff Arpaio's Cold Case Posse investigation.

Exhibit B presents four of the authentic Selective Service registration forms. All of the forms have a Post Office stamp that indicates the year with four digits.

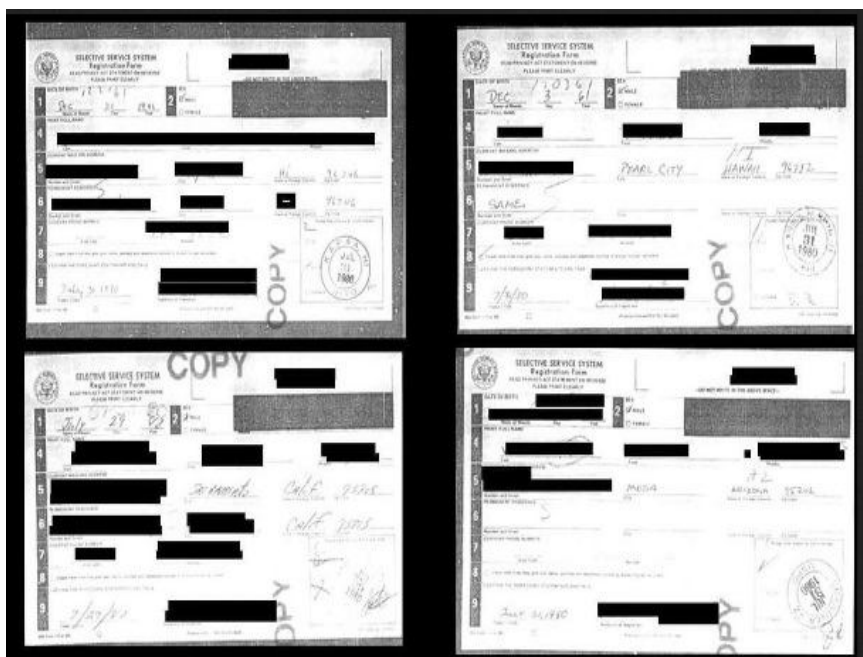

Exhibit B: Authentic Selective Service registration forms, with Post Office stamps containing four-digit year designation

In sharp contrast, the year designation in Obama's Selective Service registration has two digits, specifying only "80" instead of "1980."

Exhibit C shows the standard Post Office date-stamp equipment that was used to stamp Selective Service registration forms. A close-up shows the three slots on the bottom of the stamp in which the month, day and year plugs were inserted.

Exhibit C: Standard Post Office date stamp, Selective Service registration

Exhibit D shows five examples of the expected results from the pika stamp used by the U.S. Post Office to date-stamp Selective Service registration forms.

Exhibit D: Authentic Selective Service registration date stamps, 1980

The first two stamps in the illustration are from the same Post Office - Makiki Station in Honolulu, Hawaii - indicated on Obama's Selective Service registration.

While some of the letters stamped in the outer ring on some of the authentic documents are indistinct or even missing, all of the authentic date stamps include four digits for the year at the center of the stamp.

Investigators duplicate Obama's date stamp

Arpaio's investigators located and interviewed several 1980s-era Post Office employees who attested that it was standard procedure to utilize a four-digit date stamp.

Investigators next turned their attention toward figuring out how Obama's Selective Service registration form could possibly have obtained a two-digit year stamp.

Exhibit E shows investigators were able to obtain an authentic 1980 pica date stamp. The photograph also shows the knife set used in the investigation.

Exhibit E: Knife used to cut "2008" date, pica Post Office date stamp

Since investigators could find no 1980 pica Post Office date stamps available, they had no choice but to cut a 2008 pica Post Office date stamp and invert the "08" half, so that when it was placed in the date compartment, the stamp printed out "80."

Surprisingly, the result ended up looking identical to the date stamp on Obama's Selective Service registration card, as demonstrated in Exhibit F.

Exhibit F: "80" two-digit PICA Post Office date stamp in Barack Obama's Selective Service registration (black stamp) and in the date stamp produced by Sheriff Arpaio's investigators (red stamp)

Exhibit G makes clear that the off-to-the-right date stamp seen in the registration, the same as is seen in the demonstration by Arpaio's investigators, is not observed in the authentic four-digit pica date stamp used in the same office indicated on Obama's Selective Service registration, which has the same month, July 1980.

Exhibit G, Obama Selective Service registration on left, authentic Selective Service registration on right - same month, same Post Office

The numbers "80" are out of line to the right in Obama's card because when the numbers "08" were cut away from the "2008" date plug, they were not cut squarely.

Arpaio's investigators concluded that Obama's Selective Service registration card fit into what was becoming a common narrative for his life: The document was not only forged, it was poorly forged.

Statement from Gary Stein

"Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same." ~ Ronald Reagan

Its 2200... my daughter is well asleep and the dogs are in their kennels... I sit looking at the multiple awards and promotion certificates neatly organized along the mantle in my living room. As I look at them I think back of the great memories I have had during my 8 years of service... But then I snap back to reality... I am facing an Administrative Discharge from the Marine Corps for simply expressing my right to free speech and stating I would not follow unlawful orders. Read that again "facing an Administrative Discharge from the Marine Corps for simply expressing my right to free speech and stating I would not follow unlawful orders." Sounds crazy right? Now that is not what the papers handed to me exactly said but that is what it meant. It means that military do not rate the same basic rights that all other Americans do. I don't remember reading that in the Constitution.

I swore an oath to obey the orders of the President... But those orders must be lawful. It is the duty of each and every service members to know the difference between an unlawful and lawful order is. We need to education our service members on the Constitution. Just following orders is not a defense when having to answer for following unlawful orders.

The allegations drummed up against me are no more than an agenda by the Marine Corps to use me as an example. I have never spoken on behalf of the Marine Corps or in uniform. I have stayed within guidelines DOD Directive 1344.10 and made sure to. If I am guilty of anything it would be that I am American, a freedom loving Conservative, hell bent on defending the constitution and preserving Americas greatness. I am no more the Leader of the Armed Forces Tea Party than any other of 18,000 members are. I just happen to be normal guy who started a facebook page and who hold the Tea Party values close my heart and believes the Tea Party can enact real change in this county. We are all leaders in the Tea Party!

I thank everyone for the continued support of me and of AFTP. Now is the time we stand together as a Tea Party put aside the smaller issues that divide us from within, in order to accomplish the greater good of defeating President Obama in 2012 and electing a conservative Senate that will help the GOP Candidate repeal Obamacare and address the nation's economic and spending challenges. The Constitution is not Optional.

I will continue to keep you updated on the case

We emerged from World War II as the wealthiest and most powerful nation on the planet. During that time period, just about anyone that wanted to get a job could find a job and the U.S. middle class expanded rapidly. Back in 1950, America was still considered to be a “land of opportunity” and the economy was growing like crazy. There was less crime, there was less divorce, the American people had much less debt and the world seemed a whole lot less crazy. Most of the rest of the world deeply admired us and wanted to be more like us. Of course there were a lot of things that were not great about America back in 1950, and there are many things that many of us dearly love that we would have to give up in order to go back and live during that time. For example, there was no Internet back in 1950. Instead of being able to go online and read the articles that you want to read, your news would have been almost entirely controlled by the big media companies of the day. So there are definitely some advantages that we have today that they did not have back in 1950. But not all of the changes have been for the better. America is in a constant state of change, and many are deeply concerned about where all of these changes are taking us.

There has never been any society in the history of the world that has been perfect. America was flawed in 1950 just as America is flawed today.

But that doesn't mean that we should not reflect on how much things have changed over the past 62 years.

So which version of America would you rather live in?

America 1950 vs. America 2012 – you make the call....

In 1950, a gallon of gasoline cost about 27 cents.

In 2012, a gallon of gasoline costs \$3.69.

In 1950, you could buy a first-class stamp for just 3 cents.

In 2012, a first-class stamp will cost you 45 cents.

In 1950, more than 80 percent of all men were employed.

In 2012, less than 65 percent of all men are employed.

In 1950, the average duration of unemployment was about 12 weeks.

In 2012, the average duration of unemployment is about 40 weeks.

In 1950, the average family spent about 22% of its income on housing.

In 2012, the average family spends about 43% of its income on housing.

In 1950, gum chewing and talking in class were some of the major disciplinary problems in our schools.

In 2012, many of our public schools have been equipped with metal detectors because violence has become so bad.

In 1950, mothers decided what their children would eat for lunch.

In 2012, lunches are inspected by government control freaks to make sure that they contain the “correct foods” in many areas of the country. For example, one 4-year-old girl recently had her lunch confiscated by a “lunch monitor” because it did not meet USDA guidelines....

A preschooler at West Hoke Elementary School ate three chicken nuggets for lunch Jan. 30 because the school told her the lunch her mother packed was not nutritious.

The girl's turkey and cheese sandwich, banana, potato chips, and apple juice did not meet U.S. Department of Agriculture guidelines, according to the interpretation of the person who was inspecting all lunch boxes in the More at Four classroom that day.

The Division of Child Development and Early Education at the Department of Health and Human Services requires all lunches served in pre-kindergarten programs – including in-home day care centers – to meet USDA guidelines. That means lunches must consist of one serving of meat, one serving of milk, one serving of grain, and two servings of fruit or vegetables, even if the lunches are brought from home.

In 1950, the United States was #1 in GDP per capita.

In 2012, the United States is #13 in GDP per capita.

In 2012, the U.S. borders with Mexico and Canada are wide open and now there are 1.4 million gang members living inside the United States.

In 1950, there were about 2 million people living in Detroit and it was one of the greatest cities on earth.

In 2012, there are about 700,000 people living in Detroit and it has become a symbol of what is wrong with the U.S. economy.

In 1950, the Dow Jones Industrial Average was slightly over the 200 mark.

In 2012, the Dow Jones Industrial Average is threatening to soar over the 13,000 mark.

In 1950, corporate taxes accounted for about 30 percent of all federal revenue.

In 2012, corporate taxes will account for less than 7 percent of all federal revenue.

In 1950, the median age at first marriage was about 22 for men and about 20 for women.

In 2012, the median age at first marriage is about 28 for men and about 26 for women.

In 1950, many Americans dressed up in suits and dresses before getting on an airplane.

In 2012, security goons look at the exposed forms of our women and our children before they are allowed to get on to an airplane.

In 1950, each retiree's Social Security benefit was paid for by 16 workers.

In 2012, each retiree's Social Security benefit is paid for by approximately 3.3 workers.

In 1950, many Americans regularly left their cars and the front doors of their homes unlocked.

In 2012, many Americans live with steel bars on their windows and gun sales are at record highs.

In 1950, the American people had a great love for the U.S. Constitution.

In 2012, if you are “reverent of individual liberty”, you may get labeled as a potential terrorist by the U.S. government.

In 1950, the United States loaned more money to the rest of the world than anybody else.

In 2012, the United States owes more money to the rest of the world than anybody else.

In 1950, the U.S. national debt was about 257 billion dollars.

In 2012, the U.S. national debt is 59 times larger. It is currently sitting at a grand total of $15,435,694,556,033.29. Surely our children and our grandchildren will thank us for that.

One of the only things that is constant in life is change.

Whether we like it or not, America is going to continue to change.

Back in the 1950s and 1960s, about 70 percent of all American adults were married.

Today, only about 50 percent of all American adults are married.

We are more independent, less religious, more addicted to entertainment and more doped up on prescription drugs than Americans used to be.

The Imposter in our White House

In my opinion, one of the most wonderful aspects of this very long and still yet, unfinished investigation of the “usurper president”, is the fact that Orly Taitz, a Russian Immigrant, naturalized U.S. Citizen, learned and courageous Attorney and beloved friend of the Constitution toils daily to ensure that Obama will be evicted from 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue and reassigned to Leavenworth or the Naval Military Prison at Portsmouth, NH in a private room without any of the presidential amenities he has become accustomed to.

As a proud “new” American, Ms Taitz has criss-crossed this nation, mostly at her own expense, armed with the “rules of law”, sacred documents that set the standards for this Republic and for every person who finds this sanctuary of opportunity to be....in the eyes of Ronald Reagan, that “shining city upon the hill....” Orly has given, by her great strength and convictions, a new meaning to what our founders so aptly described as a hero and patriot.

In the last several years, Orly has slipped from one court to another and from one Town hall meeting to another to represent the Constitution and We The People in a manner that would make John Jay and George Washington stand up and take notice. Her almost fanatical pursuit of truth on this issue, that is, the Obama birth certificate, his social security number and the misrepresentations of country of birth and the several other documents that “we” rely upon to safeguard our own identity, has tested her resolve and our patience. Yet, as frustrating as this journey has been for her and as such, for us....there is ever present, her undying commitment to lift the veil of deception and subterfuge from this thinly disguised and deceptive profile of a usurper president whose claims of citizenship and loyalty to this nation are absurd and reprehensible.

Like so many others who have sought to bring some resolution to this constitutional crisis, an event larger than Watergate and one that is no less important than the revolutionary acts carried out in the hallowed halls of Philadelphia, Orly Taitz has gone well beyond the boundaries that her opposition has set and she has persisted in keeping this issue alive in the public square, against all odds and the barricades and detours set for her by those who would trash her in the press and in the courtroom. Against all obstacles of deterrence, she continues to move forward to bring the truth to the forefront and to put this matter to rest on behalf of the nation and its citizens.

As a resident of Arizona for some 20 years, I am keenly aware of the “investigation” started by the Maricopa County Sheriff in August of 2011. Likewise, I am aware of and viewed the 1st press conference on March 1st, the 2nd press conference on March 27th and the 3rd community meeting on March 31st. Having followed the legal work of Orly Taitz, Phil Berg and Leo Dinofrio over the past several years, I can honestly state that the findings of the “Posse” were no different than that which was already in the news. Yet, it was “billed” as though it were the announcement of the year and the findings of this decade. Nothing could be further from the truth, as anyone who followed this matter from the beginning knows full well that this forensic evidence was presented in several hearings by Orly Taitz, the last one being in Georgia and the next one scheduled for mid-April in Jackson, Mississippi.

The real question to the claims being made in Maricopa County is: If the evidence shows that the documents proffered by the Obama White House are “probable” forgeries and that they are the work of a forger and that there is a person of interest in its sights, then why doesn’t the Sheriff of Maricopa County, with the County Attorney move forward with a full blown criminal investigation in order to track down those responsible for authorizing and manufacturing this hoax upon the American people.

Surely, if the evidence is there, as the "Posse" and the Sheriff represent, then the need to act with a sense of urgency is required. And, to this extent, I call upon every concerned American to URGE the Sheriff and the County Attorney of Maricopa County to appoint a "regular" Law Enforcement Chief Investigator to finalize the facts, prepare them for a Grand Jury and have their findings submitted for consideration by a Court of competent jurisdiction. The time to act, if the findings and the facts are with merit as is claimed....is now; not after the election when the seeds of tyranny may very well reach fruition and the opportunity to preserve, protect and defend our Constitution has slipped from our grip like sand through our fingers.

The time to end the repetition of the press conferences and the regurgitation of their findings is long past. The time to cage the monster is now.

And, although there are others working in their own way to achieve an honorable end to this matter, Orly Taitz continues her journey in the Hearing rooms and in the Courtrooms of America. Her dedication to the law, as an Officer of the Court and as an American citizen, is a rare example of pure persistence in the face of a galvanized opposition from both the left and the right. And, like Joan of Arc, Orly continues to raise the sword of victory – even in the face of the dragon. We should all be proud to ride by her side in this quest to save our beloved nation.

God Bless America and God Bless Orly Taitz.

Obama Impeachment 2012

Wednesday, April 11th, 2012

Kurt Nimmo and Alex Jones

GCN Live.com

April 11, 2012

We can only win by launching Impeach Obama 2012. Whether or not we fully impeach him, we are committed to rebuking these unconstitutional and criminal power grabs and are determined to take the case to the court of public opinion.

—Alex Jones

Film director, producer, actor and writer Sean Stone has thrown his weight behind a resolution introduced in the House last month by North Carolina Republican Walter Jones. Resolution 107 states that should the president use offensive military force without the authorization of Congress that such an act would be “an impeachable high crime and misdemeanor.”

Article I, Section 8, of the Constitution reserves exclusively for Congress the power to declare war. Both Thomas Jefferson and James Madison argued that the power to declare war must reside in the legislative branch of government and the president will only act as the commander-in-chief and direct the war after it is declared by Congress.

“The constitution supposes, what the history of all governments demonstrates, that the executive is the branch of power most interested in war, and most prone to it. It has accordingly with studied care vested the question of war in the legislature,” Madison wrote.

In the video, Stone notes Obama’s unconstitutional war on Libya was waged “despite the fact that the United States was neither attacked, nor threatened for attack by the nation of Libya.”

Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta said during questioning by Senator Jeff Sessions of Alabama that the Obama administration does not believe Congress has the exclusive right to declare war and that the Pentagon answers to the United Nations, not the people of the United States.

The Obama administration “does not believe that the Congress has the exclusive power to declare war,” Stone notes, and “accordingly the president should be impeached.”

Stone also mentions Obama’s facilitation of the banker engineered 2008 “bailout” as an additional reason he should be tried for High Crimes and Misdemeanors and impeached. Obama’s efforts worked in favor of the “consolidation of private banks, many of them in Europe.”

“There was no investment of any meaningful type in the physical economy, there was no protection of the American people,” Sean explains. “Rather, an illegal commitment made on behalf of private banking interests, to commit the American people to paying a debt that the American people did not accrue.”

He rightly notes that Obama’s actions “represent the most clear violation of the principal of the general welfare of the people in the preamble of the Constitution of the United States.”

In addition to setting the stage for the economic rape of the American people and waging illegal and unconstitutional wars, Obama has committed a number of other egregious violations of the Constitution.

Specifically, Obama violated the Constitution’s Takings and Due Process Clauses when he bullied the secured creditors of automaker Chrysler into accepting 30 cents on the dollar while politically connected labor unions and preferential others received better deals.

In addition, the Dodd-Frank financial “reform” bill created the so-called Financial Protection Bureau and Financial Stability Oversight Council, bureaucratic monstrosities that are now engaged in unchecked and unconstitutional economic action without consulting Congress. The Dodd-Frank bill also further empowers the bankster’s preferred cartel, the Federal Reserve (which has engaged in unconstitutional activity for nearly a hundred years).

The Obamacare mandate is the most obvious violation. “No list of President Obama’s constitutional violations would be complete without including the requirement that every American purchase health insurance, on penalty of civil fine. The individual mandate is unprecedented and exceeds Congress’s power to regulate interstate commerce. If it is allowed to stand, Congress will be able to impose any kind of economic mandate as part of any kind of national regulatory scheme. Fortunately, the Supreme Court has a chance to strike this down during its current term,” writes Ilya Shapiro, a Senior Fellow in Constitutional Studies, Cato Institute.

Obama signed into law the NDAA with a provision allowing the military to indefinitely detain American citizens. “He will forever be known as the president who signed indefinite detention without charge or trial into law,” said the executive director of the ACLU, Anthony Romero.

Finally, Obama may be tried and impeached for signing a large number of executive orders. Article II of the Constitution provides the president with three options when presented with legislation – do nothing, sign the bill, or veto it in its entirety.

“Obama’s use of signing statements has clearly shown his willingness to continue the George W. Bush legacy – not only of torture and illegal detainment, but in the dangerous trend of de facto rule by ‘executive fiat.’ Worse, such signing statements put in place a precedent for future presidents to follow – or expand upon,” writes Aaron Dykes.

Obama is definitely a renegade president in violation of the law. He is guilty of treason and must be brought up on formal charges. The House must introduce a resolution for impeachment and a trial must be held in the Senate.

It can be argued that Obama has done little different than any number of presidents going back to Abraham Lincoln. Now is the time to put an end to this treasonous and tyrannical behavior. If we continue to allow the executive to flagrantly violate the Constitution, we will eventually end up with a full-blown dictatorship run out of the White House. Congress will become ceremonial and the will of the American people will be null and void once and for all.
